

Emergency measures - accommodation operation

I.

Based on the announced government measures, I declare:

Prohibition of residence of all those who have a different residence in the Czech Republic than the dormitories with these exceptions:

- 1) Students who consider the dormitories as their home and have nowhere to return can stay in the dormitories, but must sign a statutory declaration in the accommodation office.
If a university dormitory is a residence for a student according to the provisions of Section 80, Paragraph 1 of Act No. 89/2012 Coll., The Civil Code, as amended, and the university proves this fact by a declaration, it may remain accommodated in the dormitories. Residence is considered to be the place where a person stays with the intention of living there, subject to a change of circumstances permanently.
- 2) Students who have an employment relationship with VŠB-TUO.
- 3) Students studying general medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and other medical study programs, who participate in clinical and practical teaching and practice, and students performing pedagogical practical teaching and practice in kindergartens, primary and secondary schools.
- 4) Students who have been assigned work duties

Prohibition of consumption of alcoholic beverages in kitchens and common areas of dormitories. No more than 6 people can stay in the kitchen at the same time. The kitchens on all buildings will close at 21:00, and will be available again from 5:00.

Prohibition of gathering in the corridors and in other parts of the dormitories, including accommodation dwellings in more than 6 people. The students who are accommodated in the accommodation dwelling are responsible for it and they will be automatically sanctioned for non-compliance.

From 14.10.2020 it will be possible to enter the buildings as follows:

- Entrance to building "E" only through the main entrance - the corridor to building "D" will be permanently closed.
- Entrance to buildings "B, C, D" will be only through the reception "AB"
- The entrance door to the buildings "C, D" will only serve as an escape door and you will not be able to enter the buildings through the identification card.

All accommodated persons are obliged to present an ISIC card (identification card) at each entrance to the reception and to have the receptioniste check whether the person in question has the opportunity to stay in the dormitories at the time of the announcement of the ban.

II.

In case of non-compliance with point I., a fine of CZK 5,000 will be imposed. In the event of a very serious violation and the need to call the Police of the Czech Republic or a repeated offense, the students' accommodation contract will be canceled.

III.

USSS executives are required to ensure that their subordinates are demonstrably familiar with this director's order.

This order also cancels the director's order USSS_PRI_20_005.
