

Vysoká škola báňská – Technická univerzita Ostrava

FIRE EVACUATION PLAN DORMITORY VŠB OBJECTS „A, B, C, D, E“

Fire evacuation plan sets out the evacuation of people and materials from the objects threatened by the fire. Fire evacuation plan is valid for any kind of event in case of emergency.

Leading of evacuation

Evacuation will lead the Director of the dormitory, in case of his absence fire protection worker. In their absence the service is carried out by the receptionists of the dormitory. Evacuation is announced over the radio or calling „FIRE“ over the phone.

Implementation of evacuation

Evacuation will be carried out according to the graphical representation of the direction in the direction of escape routes to emergency exits leading to open space. Escape direction is indicated by pictograms. Evacuees will be concentrated before the various objects. Persons with reduced mobility will be carried out by helpers to designated area.

Checking the numbers of evacuees

Director of the dormitory, prevention of fire protection or receptionists responsible for the inspection of evacuees accommodated according to the list.

First aid

First aid to handicapped will ensure emergency hotline 150, which will be placed according to the situation on the safety spot which will be marked by the director of the dormitory, prevention of fire protection or by the receptionists.

Evacuation of material and goods from danger area

If the director determines in certain situation evacuation of materials, ensure also the storage location and the responsible employee who will oversee the material.

Location of the evacuation plan

Fire evacuation plan will be placed permanently at the receptions of each building, graphical representation of emergency exits routes in each floor.

Part of fire evacuation plan is a graphical representation of escape routes.

Ostrava, December 2010

prof. Ing. Ivo Vondrák, CSc.
rector VŠB-TU Ostrava